June:

1st Sue Graves & Hector Gilchrist

On their last visit they made a huge impression. Sue has a clear, expressive voice and has often been referred to as the 'surrey nightingale'. she has the knack of choosing songs that just 'click' with the audience, accompanying herself most tastefully with fingerstyle guitar. Hector is one of Scotland's finest singers, equally at home with a traditional ballad, contemporary songs (with his own guitar accompaniment) or jazz crooners.

8th Singers & Musicians Night

15th Carrivick Sisters

The Carrivick sisters are one of the UK's top young bluegrass and folk acts. Twins Laura and Charlotte perform their original songs and instrumentals along with a few carefully chosen covers on guitar, mandolin, fiddle, Dobro, and claw hammer banjo. They sing tight harmonies. As well as touring all over the UK, they have performed at major festivals in Canada and mainland Europe. They have released four CD's.

22nd Singers & Musicians Night

29th Singers & Musicians Night

July:

6th Ian Petrie Understated

He must be one of our most consistent performers. Whether he turns up as a guest or audience member he's guaranteed to do something different and entertaining. He's an excellent singer, guitarist and songwriter.

13th Singers & Musicians Night

20th Kieran Towers & Charlotte Carrivick

Award winning musicians in their own right, Kieran Towers & Charlotte Carrivick have recently come together to form an exciting new 'old time' duo. Kieran is the fiddler with the Hot Rock Pilgrims. Charlotte Carrivick is best known on the British folk scene for her work with her twin sister as The Carrivick Sisters. She lays banjo and guitar.
