Nick Dow

Nick Dow has been singing traditional Folk Songs for over Forty years. He has been a big influence on the Folk scene and is an acknowledged expert on West Country Folk Songs and together with his wife Mally, has collected over 300 songs in Dorset, and also found singers in Lancashire and Essex. Nick has a wonderful soft voice and plays a mean guitar!

13th

Singers & Musicians Night

20th

Hudson & Cutler

Doug (Hudson) plays guitar and is the singer. He has pursued a solo career in stand up comedy and played many of the London cabaret venues including the Comedy Store and the Canal Café Theatre. With the advent of the Hot Rats in 1992, further tours to Russia, Europe and Australia followed and he emerged with four more albums on CD.

Ian (Cutler) is the fiddler. After starting with classical music he then went on to play folk music and is one of the best folk fiddlers in the country.

*To all our members, guest & Friends
We wish a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year*

27th

Singers & Musicians Night

One last fling at the end of the year, lets make it a good one.... Same time, same channel....

January :

3rd - 17th - 31st Singers & Musicians Nights

10th

Dave Ellis & Boo Howard

A duo very familiar to our audience. They have a new CD out (which I can heartily recommend) so presumably they'll be doing some numbers from it. A welcome return awaits this excellent duo.

24th

Jolene Missing & Hippy Joe (Joe Hymas)

This is a youngish duo, new to us. Singer guitarist Jolene Missing is a traditional singer but is equally adapt at performing other genres. Jolene has a clear silky voice and is a joy to listen to. She is joined to night by "Hippy" Joe a scary-looking figure in dungarees (accessorised with patches of classic rock bands), wild hair and unkempt beard but is a nimble-fingered guitar and mandolin player.

They have a number of videos on YouTube.
