APRIL : Singers & Musicians Nights 2nd ~ 9th ~ 30th

16th Dave Ellis and Boo Howard

"Dave and Boo cover the full range of emotions in their songs, from the quirky and funny to the ethereal and deeply moving. A perfectly balanced sound that works in every corner of their fantastically varied repertoire." (The Ram Club). With regular appearances at festivals and folk clubs, Dave & Boo are now an integral part of the British acoustic folk scene and firm favourites with audiences up and down the land.

29th Themed Singers & Musicians Night - Songs of England

We continue with our regular themed Singer's Night. To celebrate St Georges Day the subject is 'Songs of England', hosted by Paul and Graham. If you are uncomfortable performing a themed song, so problem, just perform whatever you wish.

MAY : Singers & Musicians Nights 14th ~ 28th

7th Nick Lawrence

Playing a range of traditional, modern and original folk, Nick has been entertaining audiences around the South-East of England for over 15 years as well as spending 2 years performing around the Greater Toronto Area in Ontario, Canada. With previous appearances at Dover Music Festival, Rochester Sweeps Festival, Faversham Hop Festival, Folkestone's Mermaid Festival, Eaglewood Folk Festival (Ontario) to name a few. Influenced by traditional folk, and the likes of Bob Dylan, The Levellers, Billy Bragg, Kate Rusby, Ian Giles, and Johnny Cash, Nick's performances take you on a journey from foot-stomping renditions of rousing traditional folk to heartstring-tugging ballads.
